

Soroptimist International of Anacortes

2021-22 Scholarship Awardees

On May 25, 2021 Soroptimist International of Anacortes (SIA) announced eight 2021-22 scholarship awardees.

The SIA Scholarship Committee formed a partnership with Skagit Valley College (SVC) Foundation to select its 2021-2022 awardees. The Foundation, on SIA's behalf, awarded $24,000 to 8 local Anacortes women (98221 zip code) with financial need. Applicants applied online through the Foundation scholarship website and were evaluated by anonymous community members.

Below is the list of awardees and information regarding their programs of study.

Roxana Becerra and Sulemma Flores are studying Early Childhood Education and intend to become Early Childhood Education teachers. After SVC Sulemma plans to attend Washington State University.

Amelia Gegen is studying Biology and would like to become a medical doctor. Her plan is to transfer to a 4-year university/college.

Sarah Reynolds and Kelsie Spurgeon are both in the Nursing program and planning to become pediatric or geriatric nurses.

Emalee Stanforth is in AADTA (Associate of Arts -Direct Transfer Agreement) with a Social Science emphasis. Her plan is to transfer to a 4-year university and become an archeologist.

Dania Trespalacios is in Marine Maintenance Technology with an intended career in marine technology.

Ashley Wick is studying Human Services with emphasis in Substance Use Disorder Counseling. She plans to attend Western Washington University with a goal of becoming a substance use counselor.